

Quarterly report: summary

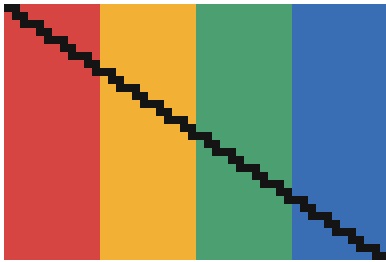

The committee approved the budget on Monday after a short debate.

Spending on maintenance rises by four percent next quarter.

The new library opens in spring and needs twelve volunteers.

Figures and images

The picture below stands in for a chart of visitor numbers.
It is a placeholder image drawn by the fixture generator.

Appendix to be removed

This page exists only in the first document.

The second document deletes it, so it has no counterpart.

Contacts

Questions about this report go to the planning office.

Office hours are Tuesday to Thursday, nine to five.