

Quarterly report: summary

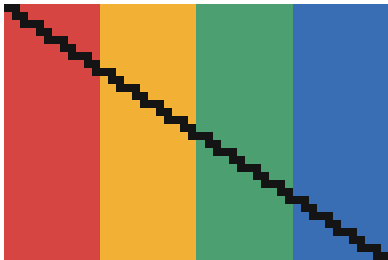

The committee approved the budget on Tuesday after a short debate.

Spending on maintenance rises by four percent next quarter.

The new library opens in spring and needs twelve volunteers.

Figures and images

The picture below stands in for a chart of visitor numbers.
It is a placeholder image drawn by the fixture generator.

Contacts

Questions about this report go to the planning office.

Office hours are Tuesday to Thursday, nine to five.

Added in revision

This page was added at the end of the second document.
It has no counterpart in the first document.